PRAISE, PRAYER & FAMILY MATTERS

LES & SHARON FREY appreciate prayer while they are in Spain reconnecting with family and ministry there. They plan to return to Canada June 5.

EVELYN HOFFMAN had an appointment with the cardiologist as a follow-up to the sudden issue with her eye last September that led to the discovery of concerns with the "electrical" circuitry in her heart that will eventually need a pacemaker. The decision about now or later is up to Evelyn. Coping with the loss of sight in her right eye is a new reality that isn't easy.

KATIE FREY invites the WBC Family to pray for her as she grieves the loss of a very dear woman who passed away Tuesday morning. Katie has lovingly cared for this woman who was a neighbour to her and Ben in their previous apartment building.

JULIE CLUTHE appreciates prayer as she will have carpal tunnel surgery on Monday. Please pray for good healing and for strength and encouragement for her and her young family.

RENATE GLAS is grateful to that she does not require surgery. Please continue to pray for her broken arm to heal well.

FROM THE ELDERS

Thank you for praying regarding the need for new deacons and Thrive members. Ken McDonald feels led of the Lord to join the deacons and Brad Martin feels led to join the Thrive Team. We would like to give everyone an opportunity to give feedback. Unless there is a reason not to, we will be praying for these leaders and welcoming them on board in the next couple weeks.
